Cubs Finally Win a Game--Georgetown Goes Down Before Pittsburg

PITTSBURG WINS
FROM GEORGETOWNHilltoppers Put Up Strong,
Plucky Game.

FURY AND DUNN THE STARS

Two Goals from Field and Two Touchdowns Registered Against the Local College Team.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—The husky Georgetown University football team went down to defeat here today before the strong University of Pittsburg eleven by the decisive score of 17 to 0. Although the visitors played a strong, plucky game, at no time did they have a chance for victory. They were outclassed in all departments of the game.

Twice Georgetown's goal line was crossed by a Pittsburg runner, and twice Galvin, Pittsburg's center, booted the ball between the uprights from placement. While Pittsburg's big score might indicate that it had an easy game, such was not the case. The visitors showed that they possessed a great team. Their back field played fast and aggressive ball, and the line showed strength.

The story of the game in a nutshell is that Coach Thompson's lads got the jump on the Washingtonians, and never let up until the final whistle blow.

Pittsburg Ends Strong.

Georgetown's backs tried hard to circle the local ends, but were repelled by stellar work on the part of Lindsay and Peacock. The play was pretty even in the first period, though it was evident even then that Georgetown was in for a beating, for the greater gains were made by the locals, and Georgetown was fortunate to even gain possession of the ball.

In the second period, the locals started to score, and before it was over had annexed nine points, three as the result of Galvin's dry field goal, and six as the result of a touchdown and attendant goal. They added eight more in the third period, Galvin kicking another goal from placement, and the Pitt team going over for a second touchdown. There was no scoring in the last period, and the game ended with the score, 17 to 0, in favor of the locals.

The stars for Georgetown were Fury and Dunn, both back field men, but made practically the only gains secured by the visitors, but were completely worn out before the battle was over, for they were called upon constantly when Capt. Daley saw that they were his best ground gainers.

Wymard and Bryant, Georgetown's tackles, played aggressive ball, but they were shaded in their work by Bailey and Stevenson, the local tackles.

Capt. Richards starred for the locals. In the second period he contributed a 25-yard run, which paved the way for Pitt's first touchdown. Lindsay was playing out for a field goal pass, but Richards saw a fair opening and used his head by plunging through. Tearing off tackle after tackle, he traveled to the 2-yard line before he was finally brought to earth. On the next play he went through for a touchdown. He made a life-saving play in the first period, when he tackled the speedy Fury on Pitt's 25-yard line, after the latter had captured a forward pass and traveled 55 yards. It looked as though the fast Washington back would clear the field on this play, but Richards came up from behind and saved the day.

Dewar Is Home Team's Star.

Dewar, at quarter back, directed the Pitt team well, his generalship being a big factor in landing a Blue and Gold victory. He analyzed the Georgetown team and knew just where to direct the plays in order to get gains. As an open field runner Dewar also distinguished himself. He got away for several long runs and scored one of the touchdowns which the locals annexed. Hittner and Brown proved good running mates for the other backs, and balanced the offense up well.

Georgetown's backfield, composed of Dunn, Fury, Stittender, and Walsh, appeared fast enough, and it is hard telling what might have happened had the locals allowed them to get a flying start. As it was, the offense was nipped in the bud and the plays were smothered in their inception. Carter, who was at right end for the visitors, was the weaker of the two Georgetown ends, and Pitt's back.

QUAKERS FORCED TO FIGHT.

Penn State Is Finally Beaten by

Pennsy., 10 to 0.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—Pennsy defeated State College today in the mud by the score of 10 to 0, five of these points being scored in the first period and five in the second. In the second period of the game State outplayed Pennsylvania and the Quakers were lucky in not having their goal line crossed. Twice were they compelled to fight for the huddle on the edge of their goal, but State College also defended the goal well in the latter part of the game and took the ball from Penn on downs on the 1-yard line. Pennsylvania's first score was the result of a fumble by Piolet. The line-up:
